Seen by 20,000 people the Danish hit comedy Opsang is now available in English. Never has morality been this popular!

Lecture is a moral musical, served with a twist of irony and a heavy sprinkle of rock n' roll. An exploration into the teen mind.

The talented ensemble creates seven teenage personalities, and switch with pinpoint accuracy from one to the other.

Through loving parody and well-choreographed slap stick comedy, the play grabs the young audience by the scruff of the neck and shakes it until it gets the message.

Teenagers and their teachers/parents laugh together at the irredeemable childishness of adolescent behaviour, and the well-ment stupidity of their adults.
