Roads is a dramatic emotional story about us as human beings, the decisions we make and how it affects our life and the life of other people around us. The choices we make and how this can lead, shape and guide the direction and circumstance we find ourselves in.

It is a story of our everyday life, the people we interact with and the path we may end upon.
Our past, our future and the present time we live in.

It is a story that will warm and touch your heart yet at the same time will send your thoughts racing and thinking about our lives, where we are, where we are heading and where we would like to be.

"ROADS", a journey of life, a story about us.
