Mr. Rice & peanuts present their latest duet SMALL! (a Swedish translation of BANG!, but in past tense) which deals with the emotional organization of revisiting past times. This we do in an online process where translation is challenging time and space.

SMALL! - the Italian version

Speakers speak of digitally recorded voices, which mash up and meet the online voices in the process of catching up with time.

We plug in and work our way towards a live-live, a kind of superimposed live.

Nothing will change unless presented with real new.

Ya'll know it when ya'll see it.

Epilogue, time just ran out.

Jump, jump and get jumped until the light goes out.
