A performance you can put in your hand luggage – big ideas are rarely presented so intimately. 15 guests become part of a performance in a private home that interweaves personal stories and the political mechanisms of Europe. How much Europe is in us all? What is Europe actually? Is it a geographic border, a cultural identity, a coalition of states?

It is said over and over that Europe is an ever changing idea – too theoretical, as the individual can tell from their own experience. Rimini Protokoll contrasts this abstract idea of Europe with the individuality of a private apartment or house. And now you can take active part in the scene.
