CORRECTION is a manic performance about perfection and perversion based on Thomas Bernhard's novel Korrektur. The scientist Roithamer has built a perfect cone in the Kobernausser forest and committed suicide. He is the sublime monster.

In CORRECTION two performers investigate the meeting between text and body. Like throwing yourself off a cliff. For a moment you become one with the air. Identity is lost. We will dance thinking. Thinking underlined.

GARDENPARTY is a newly formed stage collective with background from Norwegian Theatre Academy in Fredrikstad.
