They are five. Five strange, crazy superhumans, doped with circus and colour.

Gus, Rico, Giou, Toto et Pink Lady, five circus characters, five ways to express their joy in being there, together. They are the heroes from a life-sized comic strip, where anything can happen. With their exuberance, their tics, their tocks and their sweet madness, they share a, nicely absurd, cartoonish lifestyle. Forget all logic and retire from grey ! In this gleaming world, on the verge of exploding, too much doesn't exist!

However, when the outside world begins to exist, they feel in danger...
