The show is about to begin. The festival has contracted the services of the company Wet Floor, with more than 30 years of experience, to clean the stage and leave it in perfect condition. Everything has to be ready for the show to begin.

This new show by Cristina Solé (Los 2play, Circus Klezmer, Circo Imperfecto) is her first solo piece, WET FLOOR, an hilarious comedy that will put your nerves on edge. The audience has come to see a dance performance that is about to begin but, before, the cleaning company must leave the space in an appropriate condition for the dancer.
