Christmas Eve.
Bettina and her husband Albert aren't happy.
Bettina's mother is staying for the holidays.
Which is awkward.
Not least because Bettina's mother met a strange man on the train.
And now she's invited him around for drinks...

Family, betrayal and the inescapable presence of the past reverberate through the Roland Schimmelpfennig's razor-sharp comedy.

"Fascism doesn't come in fancy dress. It doesn't show up in jackboots and swastika tattoos. It makes itself presentable: puts on a suit, borrows a tie. It comes kissing babies and handing out hats. It goes by new names: alt-this, freedom-that..." - The Guardian

Schimmelpfennig is the most performed playwright in Germany and one of the most in the world.
