Et performativt kunstværk af BADco, der udforsker nye måder at praktisere det umulige på. Det umulige opstår fra processen med at oversætte koreografi til koreografi, optagelse til bevægelse, poesi til performance.

These [compositions] are intentionally as difficult as I can make them, because I think we're now surrounded by very serious problems in the society, and we tend to think that the situation is hopeless and that it's just impossible to do something that will make everything turn out properly. So I think that this music, which is almost impossible, gives an instance of the practicality of the impossible.
