An Alice-in-Wonderland journey through the famous Berliner disco. Berghain is the home of techno music, and here, the party never stops.

"Berghain is brave, honest and above all a huge amount of fun. Embrace it. Go in your leather, bring a collar and a leash, wear a strap-on! Or whatever. Berghain doesn't hold back and neither should you." (CPH Post, 5 stars)

"Acid trip with sex dreams and hallucinations lively rolling through the night club in Magnus Iuel Berg's piece, Berghain..." (Information)

Featuring text by Reumert-winning playwright Magnus Iuel Berg and music composed and performed live by Simon Muschinsky, from the famous Danish band When Saints Go Machine.
