The Arkhangelsk street theatre festival is one of the most important and colorful cultural events of the city which usually lasts 7 or 10 days. Traditionally the festival is opened by a crazy carnival which becomes a place of unit between invited artists and city residents who prepare their own costumes, masks with a great pleasure.

For the festival days the city transforms into one big outdoor stage where all street art tendencies are mixed. Almost 20 companies are presenting their artistic work. The festival committee tries to make a surprise for the public each year by inviting the most interesting companies from all over the world. So the festival becomes an event that nobody can miss.

The festival is well-known abroad and it was a first step for many companies who began its carriers in Arkhangelsk. Incontestable evidence of it may be the fact that in 1992 the project "Arkhangelsk International Street Theatre Festival" was awarded by the World Decade for Cultural Development label proclaimed by UNESCO.
