La Industrial Teatrera is a circus and street theatre company specialising in clowning. It is a Catalan-Madrilian mix born out of the meeting between Jaume Navarro and Mamen Olías in 2002, two artists with many years of professional experience in various theatre and circus companies and projects.

These two multidisciplinary artists created the company with the aim of communicating with the audience through smiles, laughter and emotions. In order to achieve this they use techniques of interpretive theatre, circus and street theatre with a specialism in "clownerie".
