Studium Actoris AS has four business areas:

1. Studium Actoris Ensemble conducts research in acting profession, performing arts productions and theater workshop. The business is run by Studium Actoris' owners, Paolo Martini and Jannicke Stensnes.
2. The Cultural highway is our international network that creates exchange projects with artists and artists from other countries and cultures. The network also consists of local, regional and national entrepreneurs participating in the development and realization of projects. The performances and events in The Cultural motorway being produced and shown both nationally and internationally.
3. SAFT - Theatre Address Fredrikstad is our cultural showcase where we present artists and art from around the world, preferably locally and regionally in Østfold.
4. Study Civitas - performing arts, Innovation, Urban Development and Learning

Studium Actoris has since always created works that both engage, involve and provide opportunities for growth for the communities it operates in. Drama has embodied all the innovative force in addition to producing performances, can be used in communication between social actors: us "ordinary" citizens, politicians, administrators and other governments. We seek, from project to project, the best way to utilize this unique power and adapt it to the need. Teach what we can about this, we would also like to.
