Madeleine Entwistle, renowned archeologist and lecturer, straight back from Richard III's gravesite, is visiting Copenhagen to breathe life back into Shakespeare.

Her troupe of actors is to perform scenes from the Bard's most beloved plays and render a Sonnet or two for good measure.

But Maddie suddenly gets a text from Rigshospitalet: her actors have all been seriously injured whilst rehearsing the final scene of Hamlet.

What can she do?

She must enlist the help of two most unlikely and unusual volunteers.....
