"No" is a comic operetta from The Golden Age of Danish culture with unrequited love as its central theme. Musical, funny and delivered in one fast-paced and entertaining act that lasts approximately 70 minutes proving that good comedy stands the test of time.

Playing during the CPH STAGE FESTIVAL in The Theatre Museum (Hofteatret) at The Court Theatre, which is a unique and magical venue built in 1767. The museum, auditorium and exhibitions can be viewed after each performance and is included in the price.

Situated in the city centre at Christiansborg Riding ground at Slotsholmen, just behind the Danish Parliament Christiansborg.
