A comedy hit revolving around the relationships of three middle-aged single siblings, two of whom live together, and takes place during a visit by the third, Masha, who supports them. They discuss their lives and loves, argue, and Masha threatens to sell the house.

Taking inspiration from works of Anton Chekhov and with the play's setting in a cherry orchard, as well as the theme of the possible loss of an ancestral home, this play skilfully merges realism and farce - with Tony Award-winning success.

In this production, the audience is invited to step into the centre of the three siblings and fully immerse themselves in Christopher Durang's most recent hit from the centre of the stage.
