Have you ever been mortified by your own actions after a drunken night? Then you just might nod recognizingly to the revealing and hilarious moments of this compelling play by Michael Ross. The Shy Manifesto is a bitter-sweet tender comedy about growing up as a timid 17-year-old, eager to find acceptance for his shyness. Through the digital universe of his vlog, Callum delivers a potent manifesto, which reveals his intimate thoughts about sexuality, society, humiliation, self loathing and ultimately his quest for acceptance.

Performed in rep with "Harry Clarke" and is part of House of International Theatre's season of LGBTQ+ oriented plays, presented in collaboration with Bøssehuset.
