LOVE & WE ARE THE TRANSHUMANISTS

Just as the caterpillar thought the world was ending, it became a butterfly

LOVE is a urban dance performance in a glass house about love, isolation and being closely connected, vulnerable and strong as humans despite great differences. WE ARE THE TRANSHUMANISTS is a performance about the optimized human being in the world of the future, where artificial improvement of human biology is the norm, and technology has made the dream of overcoming one's own weaknesses and defeating death a reality. NEXT ZONE/ choreographer Lene Boel is a Danish urban dance & new circus company presenting world class performances for public of all ages.
