Industry Day: The importance of queer representation in performing arts. Arranged by CPH Queer Theatre Festival and The Development Platform for the Performing Arts. What defines queer performing arts and why is it important to speak about and include queer artists in a Danish performing arts context? During the Theatre Festival at Copenhagen WorldPride in August, the City of Copenhagen is welcoming a broad spectrum of recognized queer artists from around the world. During this Industry Day, CPH Queer Theatre Festival and The Development Platform for the Performing Arts will co-host a journey over the rainbow to the land of Queer Arts, in order to initiate a debate on queer representation.
